AMERICA'S GIANT DIRIGIBLE ZR 2 EXPLODES AND FALLS IN RIVER

Only Six of Fifty British and American Fliers Aboard Survive, Two Being Badly Hurt

FINISHING TRIAL FLIGHT

Machine, After Being in Air 20 Hours Starts on Short Speed Test Before Fatal Fall

FEW CLING TO PARACHUTES

As Dirigible Swings Around Over Mass of River, Steelwork Doubles And Falls Flaming

(By United Press)

Hull, England, Aug. 24—America's giant dirigible the Z R 2, carrying more than 50 American and British fliers, exploded and fell flaming into the river Humber at 5:45 o'clock this afternoon.

At 7:30 p. m. it was reported that there were six survivors but that two of them were seriously injured.

At 8 o'clock it was stated that 49 men were believed to have been aboard. Of these 34 were British and 15 American. The latter included six officers.

So far as is known definitely only two men escaped. They floated free of the doomed air cruiser in parachutes. All the rest were believed to have been hurled to death in the river.

The Z R 2 had just returned from a trial trip which lasted all day yesterday and last night, during which she cruised over the greater part of England and was blown out of her course several times.

The British airmen took the dirigible, purchased by the United States, through all of her paces preliminary to turning her over to the Americans for a flight to Lake Hurst, N. J.

The first identified victim of the disaster was Ensign Marcus Easterly of the United States navy. His body badly burned was conveyed to the morgue here.

At 4:30 p. m. today the huge ship appeared over Howden and signaled that before landing she would make a speed trial. The big crowd waiting on the landing field around the hangar cheered and waved as the airship started toward Hull only a few air minutes away.

She swung through the air lanes above the city and above the mouth of the Humber at steadily increasing speed. Watchers below thought all was going well. The doomed men Continued on Page Three

RECRUITING FOR THE LOCAL COMPANY OPENS

National Guard Officers Receive Blanks and Are Ready to Receive Enlistments

MINIMUM OF 50 MEN NEEDED

Recruiting for the National Guard infantry company, which will be organized in Rushville, was under way today.

Captain Will B. Brann announced this morning that the proper forms and blanks had been received for enlisting men and that their applications for places in the company would be accepted at once.

Captain Brann, First Lieutenant Scott Buell and Second Lieutenant Eli Kinney will be at the O. C. Brann grocery store this evening from 7:30 to 9 o'clock and any men wishing to join the company may see them there.

The Rushville company will receive federal recognition when fifty men not including the officers are recruited. The minimum number was formerly sixty-five, but it was reduced under a recent ruling. The maximum number of enlisted men for an infantry company is ninety-five.

Officers of the company and others interested in the project believe there will be little difficulty in obtaining the required number of recruits soon.

FORMER RECORDER SUED FOR $10,000

Miss Madeline Cones of Greensburg Files Damage Suit Against Chester Peck Today

SEDUCTION IS ALLEGED

Case on Record Soon After Peck is Found Guilty on Paternity Charge by Justice Stech

A suit demanding $10,000 judgment was filed today in the circuit court against Chester Peck of Orange township, former county recorder, by Miss Madeline Cones of Greensburg, the action being a civil suit for seduction.

Peck also was tried this afternoon in Justice Stech's court on a paternity charge by the same defendant, and he was found guilty and bound over to the circuit court on $500 bond. Cases of this nature are given final disposition in the circuit court.

The suit filed by Miss Cones alleges that she is unmarried and that the defendant began paying her attention in September, 1920, and continued to do so until some time in October. She alleges further that she was a chaste, virtuous and modest girl, and that the defendant made promises of marriage.

CLAIMANTS URGED TO VISIT SQUAD

Ex-Service Men Must Fill Out Claims For Compensation Before Going To Indianapolis

GEO. C. WYATT LOCAL AGENT

Three Classes of Former Soldiers Appealed to by Red Cross—Transportation is Paid

The upshot of the visit of two representatives of the United States veterans bureau, recently created under the Sweet bill, in Rushville Tuesday, is that a more concentrated effort will be made by the interested organizations to get every former service man in Rush county with a claim against the government, to file it with the "Clean-up Squad," which is sitting in Indianapolis.

The Misses Ruth Hodson and Rhoda Welding, Red Cross employees who are representing the "Clean-up Squad," met with representatives of the Red Cross, American Legion and War Mothers Tuesday afternoon and outlined the plans of the squad to get every ex-service man's claim before the government. The appeal is to be made to three classes of former soldiers.

Those who have made a claim and are not receiving any compensation. Those who are receiving compensation but feel that it is not sufficient.

Those who have never made a claim but believe that they are entitled to compensation.

The method of procedure for any ex-service man falling in any of these classes is as follows:

He should first visit George C. Wyatt, chairman of the Red Cross home service committee here, at George C. Wyatt and company's store and fill out the proper forms. He should then go to Indianapolis on Thursday afternoon and place his claims before the board. If a medical examination is required the "Clean-up Squad" has physicians in attendance so that this matter can be attended to at once.

The essential thing to do is to call on Mr. Wyatt and fill out the claims before going to Indianapolis. If a claimant for compensation calls on the squad without his papers ready for filing, he will not be considered, but will have to return to his home and go through these preliminaries. It is also urged that all ex-service men Continued on Page Six

TOWNSHIP TAXABLES SHOW A SLIGHT LOSS

Totals For Rushville Exclusive of City Announced at Auditor's Office Today

SMALLER THAN EXPECTED

The total value of taxables in Rushville township, exclusive of Rushville city, on which taxes will be paid next year, was announced today at the auditor's office to be $6,881,600. This represents a loss of only $172,825 in a year as last year's assessments amounted to $7,054,425.

This is much better than anticipated because the assessment of personal property in the county this spring revealed a loss of twenty-five percent. Additional improvements on real estate and increases in the assessments of public utilities and corporations served to bring the total above the sum indicated by the personal property assessments.

Totaling of the Rushville township assessments was completed today, and it is expected the remainder will be completed in a few days, so that it will be possible to determine the total taxables in Rush county, on which taxes will be paid next year.

The Rushville city totals were announced yesterday and showed only a very slight loss. It is disclosed today that land and improvements made a gain of $82,115 due to additional improvements added this year. Mortgage exemptions in Rushville city this year are $25,000 larger than last year.

MAN ROBBED OF PURSE IN REAR OF HIS HOME

Albert McFarren, 411 W. First, Attacked by Two Thugs and $27 Stolen Tuesday Night

HE PUTS UP A GAME FIGHT

Albert McFarren, 411 West First street, was attacked last night shortly before eight o'clock by two thugs at the rear of his home, and in the scuffle his pocketbook containing between $26 and $27 was stolen, and the two men made their escape.

The affair was reported to the police as soon as it happened, and Patrolmen Jenkins and Nicholson searched the railroad yards and along the river, but no one answering the description of the two assailants was found.

Mr. McFarren had stepped out in his back yard, and was coming in on the rear walk, when the two men grabbed him, one holding his hands, and making a search. Mr. McFarren broke loose and handed one of the men several severe blows, and in exchange McFarren got several blows in the face, which today were proving painful.

The victim of the hold-up is employed at the Dill Foundry.

DEADLOCK LIKELY TO PREVENT RECESS

Opposing Factions in Beer Bill Fight Refuse to Budge as Time For Adjournment Nears

MCNARY BILL HOLDS HOUSE

President Harding Insistent That it be Passed Before Any Recess is Taken by Congress

(By United Press)

Washington, Aug. 24—A deadlock over the beer bill in the senate today brought legislative wheels to a standstill and threatened to prevent the recess which is scheduled to start tonight.

Dry forces refused to allow the beer bill to be sidetracked and advocates of the Stanley anti-seizure amendments stood pat on their contention.

Repeated efforts to get an agreement on the Dye embargo extension amendment to the beer bill were blocked by opposing factions. Sen. Jones of Washington declared he would keep the senate in session until December before he would give his decision to take up any other legislation until the beer bill is passed.

The beer bills' place as a house block to a vacation was taken today by the McNary bill to broaden the powers of the war finance corporation to aid farmers. Conferees on the measure have been unable to agree.

President Harding is insistent this bill be passed before a recess. Republican leaders of the House have served notice that it must be passed before the vacation. Strong efforts were made to reach an agreement during the day.

Final action was expected today on the deficiency appropriation bill providing $200,000 for the disarmament conference and $48,500,000 for the shipping board.

TO TAKE STRIKE VOTE

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 24—Ballots will be sent out next Wednesday for a strike vote among more than 400,000 railroad workers throughout the country, railroad brotherhood officials announced today. Results are not expected to be tabulated for a month after the vote is taken.

SHIRLEY MAN BANKRUPT

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 24—Orville Judd, dealer in agricultural implements, Shirley, Ind., filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in federal court here today, giving liabilities of $10,959.50 and assets of $4,096.

NO ADJOURNMENT TO BE PERMITTED

Precinct Election Boards Must Remain on Job Until Special Election Vote in County

APPOINTMENTS ALL MADE

County Clerk is Expected to Certify Vote to Secretary of State Within Four Days

The law governing the special election Tuesday, September 6, to vote on the thirteen proposed amendments to the Indiana state constitution, provides for no adjournment of the precinct election boards, which have been appointed in this county, will be permitted until the vote is counted and delivered to the clerk of the county, who in this case will act as the county election commission and perform the duties which fall to the commission in a regular election.

Owing to the fewer number of election officials, the vote may not be known as soon as at an ordinary election, he said.

The county clerk by law must certify the records of the precincts in his county to the secretary of state within four days after the election. The secretary of state "as soon as possible," the law says, shall determine the result of the election and certify the same to the governor who shall "immediately" publish a proclamation showing the result of the election.

An example is cited to make plain just what will be necessary before an amendment is adopted:

Suppose the total number of votes cast at the election has been ascertained to be 100,000, then it will be necessary for an amendment to have at least 50,001 votes to carry. If it has not a majority, it can not be adopted regardless of the number of votes cast for or against it.

It is explained that the election will be held in precincts as in a regular election, and that the election officials will be one judge and one clerk. This board must count the votes to ascertain the total number cast in the precinct. Then it must count the number of votes for and against each proposal and certify the results to the county clerk within two days after the election.

Mr. Cavins said that the law provides for no adjournment for the board and that if a board were to stop before it completed its work it could be mandated to take up the work again.

The election boards have been appointed as follows:

STATE DRY OFFICERS MAKE A WATER HAUL

Unable to Find Still in Southern Rush County After Delay in Coming Here

FEW EMPTY JUGS ARE FOUND

Two federal agents in the office of the state prohibition officer were here yesterday, and conducted a search in the extreme southern part of Rush county, near Andersonville in quest of an alleged still that was reported to be operating. According to the officers, evidence was found to give reason that a still had been in operation, but the equipment had been removed that morning, according to fresh tracks nearby. Several empty jugs were found.

No arrests were made, and the place will be watched by the agents. The local authorities attempted to have the agents come here Monday for the search, but they failed to appear after promising to be here in the early afternoon.

It is supposed that in the meantime the word was passed along to the alleged bootleggers and they made a safe get-away. Slowness on the part of the state officers is said to be the cause of many good chances getting by.

AUTOMOBILE TRIP CLIMAX OF THE DAY

Over Two Hundred Children Enjoy
Annual Picnic Given by Salvation
Army Tuesday

AMOUNT OF FOOD CONSUMED

Over two hundred Rushville children had the time of their young lives Tuesday at the Salvation Army picnic in the city park. The day was one continuous round of pleasure and good things to eat, winding up with an automobile ride lasting for two hours, which provided a very fitting climax for the event.

A dozen machines were on hands to carry the children on a pleasure tour through the northern part of the county, but they could not take all of the Army's guests aboard and a few had to be satisfied with a ride in and near Rushville on a truck. The motor trip included a visit to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home.

Fifty watermelons, ten gallons of ice cream, ten pounds of boiled ham four hundred buns, several cakes and many gallons of lemonade were consumed at the noon meal. On the automobile trip the children were given a "treat" at Knightstown. A ball game, freak races and performances by Envoy Ellis amused the children during the day.

Envoy Ellis today expressed his appreciation for the cooperation and support which he was given in the enterprise. He desires to thank everyone who contributed money, food and the use of their machines.

IS RECOMMENDED FOR A COMMISSION

Russell Gray Only Man in His Company to Win This Distinction at Camp Knox, Ky.

IS GIVEN CHOICE OF TWO

Russell Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Gray of this city, who attended the citizens' military training camp at Camp Knox, Ky., has been recommended for a commission in the regular army, providing he wants to apply for it and take the examination, according to a letter received from Capt. Lawrence A. Quinn, commanding Co. D of the 3rd infantry. Mr. Gray was the only man to win that distinction, and the additional one of being recommended for a commission in the reserve corps.

He was one of two young men selected in this county to attend the training camp. The letter from Capt. Quinn in regard to the local boy's record in camp is as follows:

"It is my pleasure as commanding officer of this company to inform you that your son Russell has been recommended for a commission as second lieutenant in the officers reserve corps of the United States army. He has the further honor of being the only man in the organization to have been given that distinction. I have also written a letter recommending him for a commission in the regular army in case he wishes to apply and take the examination. His record in the company is excellent throughout and his conduct and discipline beyond criticism. I consider him one of the best types of young American manhood and an asset to his parents and his country."

aboard in the control cabins and on the narrow runways between the motors must have had a moment's warning of the disaster it is believed. Otherwise they would not have been able to free themselves for the parachute jump.
Just as the Z R 2 came around in a great curve high over the house tops of Hull near the mouth of the river where it is very wide and deep, there was a flash and great burst of smoke and flame. While the horrified watchers gazed at the tragedy in the sky, they heard the rumble of the distant explosion. The great steel-work doubled and the back of the great ship broke.
Slowly at first and then with increasing speed, she fell into the river.
Thousands of spectators, stupefied with horror, watched her fall. Dense volumes of blue flames streamed hundreds of feet above the surface of the water. Four men were seen descending in parachutes.
Three were clinging to one parachute as it swept toward the river.
The explosion was terrific, smashing many windows in business houses in the city. The explosion occurred after the machine had been in the air twenty hours.

IRELAND IS GLAD TO BE AT PEACE

When Truce in Irish War Was Declared, Dublin Again Became a Friendly City

QUIETNESS REIGNS TODAY

Everyone in Dublin Even Looks Younger and Happier Since The Truce Was Inaugurated

By CHARLES McCANN
(U. P. Staff Correspondent)
Dublin. (By Mail)—When the truce in the Irish war was declared, Dublin became metamorphosed in a day from a war capital to an ordinary friendly city in which soldiers of the rival armies fraternized immediately and completely overnight, without any sign of self-consciousness of curiosity, but with the easy friendliness of mutually congenial people.
Since the day truce was declared, there has not been a hostile shot fired in Ireland outside of Ulster.
Constables of the Royal Irish Constabulary, cadets of the Black and Tans, soldiers of the British army and the "Irish Republican Army" and the ordinary civilian are about the streets chaffing each other, talking, laughing, having a good time in the ordinary easy-going fashion of Irish cities.
Everyone shows signs of a relief from the terrible nervous strain of the constant menace of death. The war was conducted among the civilian population? Streets, roads and farms were battlegrounds, and there was never time properly to evacuate their combatants.
But everyone in Dublin looks younger and happier since the truce. No one jumps much any more when an automobile back-fires; there is no frightened, last-minute scurry for trams and home just before the curfew hour—except in peaceful Belfast, where posttruce riots forced a reimposition of curfew.
The fakirs and itinerant musicians have returned to the streets of Dublin. The beggars, men, women and children were always there with their "May the blessing of God always follow you", and the muttered "and may it never catch up with you" in case coppers were not forthcoming.
British soldiers and the R. I. C. constables are usually in uniform; the Black and Tans usually, though not necessarily, in civilian clothes, as whatever else may be said of them, they are an impressive-looking lot of young men, most of them known by sight anyway in the towns in which they are stationed. The men of the I. R. A., of course, are in civilian clothes also, as they do not attempt to wear uniforms during the truce.
At night, when the boat pulls out for Holyhead, a company of young British soldiers on leave goes aboard, makes itself comfortable in the forepart of the ship, pulls out the ever-present mouthorgan and begins singing "Tipperary"; a crowd of Black and Tans rushes, laughing, up the gangplank, and begins asking itself loudly if it wants to go back to dear old Dublin any more, and answers itself unhesitatingly, "NO!" pausing to exchange repartee and laughs with the crowd ashore.
As the boat moves out toward the Irish Sea and England, there come shouts from the boat of "Up the R. I. C.," and answering shouts from the crowd for the mile or so along the docks before the voice is lost across the water of "Up Dublin", "Up the I. R. A." all boisterously, gestimulatingly, laughingly; while the civilians aboard watch impartially but interestedly, and the Tommies up in the bow, oblivious, wrap their overcoats about them and listen to the plaintive "Tipperary".

WOMAN DENIES SHE'S DEAD

St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 24—Papers which declared Mrs. Serena Gilliland dead were corrected by the county clerk at Granite City, Ills. The body of a woman found buried three months ago in a shallow grave near Granite City was positively identified as that of Mrs. Gilliland.
"Her" body was buried beside her mother near Belleville. Mrs. Gilliland proved she was very much alive when she arrived from Cincinnati.
Her husband who was arrested at Terre Haute, Ind., in connection with the supposed death, was given his freedom.
Coroner Mercer said a second inquest would not be necessary as the original verdict "homicide by persons unknown" still stands.
Police today still endeavored to identify the victim.

Dublin, Aug. 24—The character of the Dail Eirrean's reply to the British government's peace offer will leave the door open for further negotiations.
The United Press correspondent was reliably informed today that the reply which has been determined upon, while not accepting the terms, will not mean immediate resumption of hostilities.
Sinn Fein's inner circle has decided, upon its answer and submitted it to Dail Eirrean for approval.

TREATY BASED ON KNOX RESOLUTION

As drawn the pact was said to have met the approval of the Senators. It was indicated that the treaty would be signed in Berlin today or tomorrow by E. Loring Presel American commissioner, acting under direct authority of the president.
The final act before the signature was understood to be the conference of the president and Secretary of States Hughes with the Senators this morning.
Upon being assured that the new pact in general met the approval of the Senators it was understood that the order had gone to Presel to sign in behalf of the United States.
The full text of the treaty will be submitted to the full members of the Senate foreign relations committee at two o'clock this afternoon. The text of the treaty will be made public by the state department after signature simultaneously with its release in Berlin.
Harding decided not to ask that the Senate remain in session to consider the treaty because it was desired to have it come before the American Senate and the German Reichstag at about the same time. The Reichstag will reconvene September 20, and the congressional recess is scheduled to end Sept. 21.

At the conference with the Senators no charge in the pact was suggested. The treaty is a comparatively short document, it was stated. Diplomatic relations, it was learned, will be re-established upon the exchange of ratification as will all other peace time relationships.
All members of the Senate foreign relations committee except Borah and Johnson were present. Johnson is out of the city and while Borah is here, no explanation for his absence from the White House conference was forthcoming.

Should Pay For The Privilege

With the industries of all other countries protesting against the imposition of protective duties at American ports, it begins to look as though there is a real need for return to the protective principle. The congress does not propose to shut out importations entirely but merely to impose a tax which will put the American producer on something like an equality with his foreign competitor in our own markets. The American producer not only pays local, state and federal taxes but he pays the American standard of wages and maintains American standards of working conditions. He buys American raw materials where available. This being true, why shouldn't the foreign importer be required to pay an import tax for the privilege of marketing his cheap products here?

England, long used as an example of a free trade country, has begun to see the light. The Island empire has passed a law fixing a protective duty on certain articles imported into Great Britain and has authorized a commission to place duties on other articles as the occasion arises. Such a procedure is impossible in this country under our form of government. Although it may produce results more quickly, it is not representative government and would not be tolerated in the United States. Nevertheless, Great Britain has seen the need of protection.

Stockholders and Employees

Many people express solicitude for the railroad employees merely because they think there are many more employees than owners of the roads, and that the powerful few have been exploiting the more numerous, but less influential, workers for their own benefit. The Railway Age estimates that there are approximately twice as many owners of rail securities as there are employees. The Northern Pacific road is considered typical of all lines, and a recent count showed that there are 73,000 owners of its bonds and stocks. But the employees of the Northern Pacific number only about 30,000.

The rights of those security holders are just as inviolate as the rights of labor. The railroad employees were able, through threatened strikes and various other forms of intimidation, to raise their wages substantially as the cost of living rose during and after the war. But the security holders, depending for their incomes on their dividends and interest payments, but in most cases it was cut off entirely, while the market value of their holdings steadily went down. They could not use force and coercion to keep their income on a par with living costs, even had they been inclined to do so. Instead of the rail employees being forced to accept unreasonable wages and conditions of employment in order that the owners of the roads might prosper, exactly the reverse has been true. The organized workers took advantage of the defenseless condition of their employers and the circumstances of the times to extort rates of wages far out of proportion to returns on capital and rules of employment that are little less than confiscatory.

Proposed Amendments to State Constitution Briefly Explained

A concise statement of the ends to be accomplished by each of the proposed amendments to the state constitution on which voters will pass at a special election Sept. 6 has been prepared by a special committee of the State Bar Association, composed of Ralph M. Kane, C. C. Shirley, James W. Fesler, J. A. Van Osdel and Bernard Korbly. The comment is limited to the explanation of results, without indorsement or objection. The Republican is publishing the amendments in numerical order, one each day, with the bar association committee's note on each.

Veto of Items in Appropriation Bills.

That Sec. 14 of Art. 5 of the constitution of the state of Indiana be amended to read as follows: Sec. 14. Every bill which shall have passed the General Assembly shall be presented to the Governor; if he approve, he shall sign it, but if not, he shall return it, with his objections, to the House in which it shall have originated, which House shall enter the objections at large upon its journals, and proceed to reconsider the bill. If, after such reconsideration, a majority of all the members elected to that House shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, with the Governor's objections, to the other House, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by a majority of all the members elected to that House, it shall be a law. If any bill shall not be returned by the Governor within three days, Sundays excepted, after it shall have been presented to him, it shall be a law without his signature, unless the general adjournment shall prevent its return, in which case it shall be a law, unless the Governor, within five days next after such adjournment, shall file such bill, with his objections thereto, in the office of the secretary of state, who shall lay the same before the General Assembly at its next session in like manner as if it had been returned by the Governor. But no bill shall be presented to the Governor within two days next previous to the final adjournment of the General Assembly. The Governor shall have power to approve or disapprove any item or items of any bill making appropriations of money, embracing distinct items, and the part or parts of the bill approved shall be law, and the item or items of appropriations disapproved shall be void unless repassed according to the rules and limitations prescribed in this section for the passage of bills over the executive veto. In case the Governor shall disapprove any item or items of any bill making appropriations of money, he shall append to the bill, at the time of signing it a statement of the item or items which he declines to approve, together with his reasons therefor. If the General Assembly be in session, the Governor shall transmit to the House in which the bill shall have originated a copy of each of such items separately, together with the objections appended to each such item, and the item or items so objected to shall be separately reconsidered in the same manner as bills which have been passed by the General Assembly and disapproved by the Governor, and if on reconsideration such item or any of them shall be approved by a majority vote of all the members elected to each House, the same shall be part of the law notwithstanding the objections of the Governor.

Note: The purpose of this amendment to make it possible for the Governor to veto any single bill or any number of items in the appropriation bills. At present the Governor must veto the entire appropriation bill or approve the bill as a whole. The objection to this amendment is that it grants too much power to the Governor; if it is agreed that he might veto the wrong item or use his power to force his personal views on the General Assembly in the matter of appropriations. On the other hand, it is urged by those favoring the amendment that it prevents the forcing into the appropriation bill of ill-advised and undesirable appropriations, which if presented under this amendment would have no standing and which if included in the bill could be eliminated by the veto power provided for in this amendment without being driven to the necessity of vetoing the entire bill.

Well, What Else Could a Feller Do?

The Rexall Idea

In 1902, a number of leading druggists throughout the United States, realizing that the public demanded efficient household remedies, met together and formed a co-operative company for the purpose of producing a line of preparations which they could truthfully recommend and honestly sell as being the best that could be produced anywhere.

To that end, the counsel and co-operation of some of the ablest minds in the drug world were employed and are still associated with the company, which was established under the name—United Drug Company.

Discerning druggists have unusually favorable opportunities to note the drug combinations regularly used with good results in a high average of cases. The druggists affiliated with this organization contributed formulae of proven value. Thousands of formulae and other data were consulted in each case, and what was considered by a most competent research committee, appointed especially for that purpose, to be the one best recipe for the treatment of the particular ailment for which it was intended, was adopted.

As an easy means of identification for their products, the name "Rexall" was selected as a general trade-mark. This name is derived from the word REX, meaning "King," to which was added the word "all," meaning "King of All."

Great laboratories in Boston, occupying many buildings of many stories, and many acres of floor space, employing upwards of three thousand people, is the monument that stands to the success of the enterprise that started in such a small way.

Today, besides the many different Rexall Remedies and Toilet Preparations, this co-operative company produces the following splendid lines: Harmony Perfumes, Liggett's Chocolates, Fenway Chocolates, Guth Chocolates, Symphony Lawn and Lord Baltimore Stationery, Maximum and Monogram Rubber Goods, and many others, and nearly eight thousand druggists of the United States, Canada and Great Britain have become members of the organization, which means that Rexall Remedies and the other lines produced by the United Drug Company are sold in nearly eight thousand different communities, because only the leading druggists of any one community is eligible to membership in this co-operative organization.

We wish to emphasize that Rexall Remedies are not designed or intended to supersede the services of a physician. If you are ill and do not know what is wrong, then we strongly advise you to consult a physician, and the best that you can locate. If you know what ails you and do not desire the services of a physician, we then urge you to select one of the Rexall Remedies to treat your ailment.

Millions of people have now come to understand that when they buy Rexall Remedies they buy health insurance of a splendid character. They know that Rexall Remedies and Toilet Preparations are free from deception, and that they are guaranteed against loss of their money should they, at any time, find any Rexall preparation not to give satisfaction.

The guarantee simply means that if you believe the remedy has not given satisfaction you are entitled to, simply go back to the Rexall Store where you bought it and ask for your money; it will be cheerfully given you.

When you have decided to use a prepared medicine or a Toilet Preparation of any kind, we urge you to go to "The Rexall Store" and ask for a Rexall Preparation that is suited to your needs and meets your requirements. If you desire any particulars or literature, about any of them, the same will be gladly furnished you by the Rexall Druggist.

Also bear in mind that whether or not you desire a Rexall Remedy it will pay you in satisfaction as well as in dollars and cents, to patronize "The Rexall Store," where you will always find courteous treatment, well-kept and complete stocks and the lowest possible prices, consistent with quality.

625,000 BOTTLES
SOLD IN NEW YORK

Biggest Thing of Kind Ever Seen in That State, Says Big Wholesaler

The fact that 625,000 bottles of Tanlac have been sold in the state of New York since its introduction there less than one year ago, is a big business item that will attract unusual attention throughout the entire East, for nothing like it has ever happened before. It breaks all records.

Mr. George B. Evans, manager of the Gibson-Snow Company, the well-known wholesale druggists, with branches in Albany, Buffalo, Rochester and Syracuse, recently announced that the preparation was now selling in their trade territories alone at the phenomenal rate of approximately 500,000 bottles a year. "If the present rate continues," said Mr. Evans, "this state alone will probably require considerably over 750,000 bottles a year. This is a tremendous figure, but I am really conservative in making this statement."

Tanlac is sold in Rushville by F. B. Johnson Drug Co. and by leading druggists everywhere. Advertisement

HARNESS RACING
IS PREDOMINATE

Automobile Racing Will Never Take Place of Horse Racing at State
Fairs

OPINION OF I. NEWT BROWN

Secretary Says More Horses Entered
This Year Than For Past
Thirty Fairs

Indianapolis, Aug. 24—Automobile races will never supercede light harness horse races, I. Newt Brown, secretary of the state board of agriculture said here today.

This according to Brown is particularly so at state fairs. There is more interest in the light harness racing he said.

Automobile shows, will never take place of the horse show according to Brown.

"We have more horses entered in the light harness races this year than we ever had in the past thirty years," said Brown. "We have as many auto's entered in this year's race as we have had before but we have no more."

"I have been connected with state fairs for the past thirty years and I have not noticed that a bit of interest has been lost in either the horse race or the horse show."

"When it is announced that the horse race is about to start, people can be seen flocking to the grandstand and the track to witness the event."

"There is more interest in a more human like event than there is a mechanical event."

If it were not for the horse races held at the state fair the fairs would almost be a thing of the past, he continued. At every county fair there are horse races. But at only the state fair are the automobile races held. At the county fair there is always a horse show and in some counties an automobile show was never held.

Members of the state board of agriculture are looking toward the largest attendance in history this year, Brown said. A herd of prize cattle will be entered in the stock show by Governor Warren T. McCray, it was said.

BASKET DINNER TO BE SERVED

Members of the Arlington and Gwynneville base ball teams of twenty years ago, together with their families, will gather at Arlington next Saturday for a reunion and basket dinner, and incidentally they will again try to settle the old dispute about which is the best team. With practically the same line-up as they used two decades ago, they will play ball at 10:30 o'clock. The probable line-up will be as follows:

Arlington—Charles McFatrige, 1st; N. R. Farlow, 2nd; Frank Brooks or Fred McFatrige, 3rd; Will Kyser, ss; Chas. Kennedy, lf; Bert Brooks, cf; George Alexander, rf; Frank Catt and Frank Lawrence battery. STATE FIRE LOSSES
SHOW BIG DECREASE

Million Dollars Less Damage First Six Months This Year Compared With Last Year

MANY ARSON CASES DOCKETED

Indianapolis, Aug. 24—Losses to property owners of the state from fire has decreased approximately $1,000,000 during the first six months of 1921 over the same period of time in 1920, according to Newman Miller state fire marshal. Last year more than $4,000,000 worth of property was destroyed by fire losses as compared with slightly more than three million dollars this year.

"The state fire marshal's office is working on the theory that an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure", Miller said.

Last year of 88 fires investigated thirty eight were found to be of incendiary origin. Thirty four persons were indicted and 21 brought to trial during the year 1920. Twenty of the twentyone brought to trial by attorneys for the fire marshal's office were convicted and received sentences ranging from one to four teen years.

First degree arson carries a sentence of from 2 to 21 years, and a fine of not exceeding twice the amount of property destroyed. One man, a watchman for an Indianapolis lumber company was convicted on a charge of arson and the trial judge sentenced him to prison for twenty one years and fined him the amount of the property destroyed. This amounted to about fourteen thousand dollars and as prisoners time is valued at one dollar a day his sentence of from two to twenty one years must be served before the fine can be imposed.

More than twenty five cases are on the docket of Chester Davis attorney for the state marshal's office and will be tried during the next year.

SPORT CHATTER

Yesterday's hero—Cy Williams, second citation in two days. His homer scored the only run for Philadelphia against his old team mates—the Cubs.

The Philadelphia athletics showed their stamina by coming up in the tenth to win from the White Sox 6 to 5.

The Tigers put in a spendthrift afternoon spending eight more runs than were necessary to win from Washington. The score was 12 to 3. Boston's Red Sox made sixteen hits and almost a run for every hit. St. Louis being crushed, 15 to 2.

The Yankees stepped on Cleveland's heels by winning, 6 to 1. Heavy hitting put them within one game of the lead.

Brooklyn took a ten inning beating from Cincinnati, the Reds pouring five runs over the pan in that final session.

The Cards made it 3 out of 4 from the Giants with a 10 to 7 win, and Boston's win over Pittsburgh, 4 to 3, kept the Pirates in a good position.

THIS TIME LAST YEAR

Detroit won third game in four-game series with the Yanks.
American League moguls meeting in Philadelphia vote that Yanks should get their own playing field.
Napier pitched his first game for the Reds and beat the Phils.
Boeckel, Braves, got four hits in four times up, including two doubles.

New York, Aug. 24—Babe Ruth has earned the right to loaf for 18 days. By driving out two home runs yesterday, he put himself 18 days ahead of his home run record of 1920. Playing with the Yanks at Cleveland, Babe acquired his 47th and 48th circuiters.

Chicago, Aug. 24—Breaking 198 of 200 targets, Nick Arie, of Kingman, Ariz., won the American Amateur trap shooting championship at single targets one of the most coveted distinctions of trapdom.

Oakwood Country Club, Cleveland Ohio, Aug. 24—Bob Peebles, of the Kickapoo Club, Peoria, Ill., turned in a low score of 69—two below—par—in the first round of the western golf tournament today.

This is the lowest score ever made in championship play on this course.

Buck Jones at the Mystic
Buck Jones, sportsman, athlete and marksman, appears first as a Scotch miner, and later as a member of the Northwest Mounted Police, in his latest William Fox picture, "Get Your Man" which comes to the Mystic today only.

Jones, the hero of such motion picture successes as "The One-Man Trail," "Two Moons," "Just Pals" and "The Big Punch," displays exceptional versatility, it is said, in his latest. In the earlier scenes he appears as Jack MacTier foreman, in a Scotch mine—in which capacity he becomes the hero of a mine disaster, rescues an unworthy rival in love, and quits the country when his rival wins the girl.

He seeks the Canadian Northwest in the hope of forgetting his unpleasant experience. There he becomes a member of the Mounted Police, and again meets the man whom Cupid favored back in Scotland—and who as a defaulter has deserted his young wife and child. Jack is now an officer on the trail of a criminal—and his former rival is the criminal.

The meeting of these two, their subsequent dealings and a second battle for the hand of another girl combine to furnish a series of dramatic incidents as thrilling as they are novel. "Get Your Man" boasts an exceptionally strong cast.

At the Princess Two Days

Should a wife open her husband's letters? Is it more reprehensible to hold back a letter than to open it? If a wife does not open her husband's mail but holds back a letter which she believes will disrupt her household, is she less dishonest than if she had opened it and acted upon it?

The action of Lois Weber's latest photoplay "Two Wise Wives," hinges upon a wife's decision regarding a letter which comes to her husband with a crest upon it which she instantly recognizes. What she does with the letter provides one of the most intensely interesting situations of the play.

"Too Wise Wives" is another of those delightful photoplays of life in the best American society which have created a large following for Lois Weber. Women flock to see Lois Weber plays. There is a reason. It is a Paramount picture and will be shown at the Princess today and Thursday.

The story deals with the trials of a young wife whose devoted attentions to her husband weary him and cause him to yearn for the society of his former sweetheart who has married a wealthy man. Then follows developments that narrowly wreck the lives of two wives and their husbands. Claire Windsor and Louis Calhern play the leading roles. Phillips Smalley and Mona Lisa also are in the cast.

Indianapolis for claimants for compensation will be paid by the government but men seeking vocational education will have to pay their own expenses to meet the board. Vocational education claims may be filed with the "Clean-up Squad" on the same afternoon that compensation claims are taken up.

Only ex-service men with a disability of more than ten percent may expect to receive compensation, it is announced.

Under the Sweet bill recently passed, the Federal Board for Vocational Education and Bureau War Risk Insurance are combined under one body, now known as the Veterans' Bureau. William E. Coffin is manager of district number seven, with headquarters at Cincinnati, O. In order that the work of the bureau in cleaning up claims of disabled men be speeded up, clean-up squads are being sent into each state. At present there are three squads for district seven and one of them is located in Indianapolis.

The headquarters of the Indiana clean-up squad is 414 Meridian Life Bldg., north Pennsylvania street, Indianapolis, and is composed of two doctors, claim insurance man, and representatives of the American Legion and American Red Cross.

The clean-up squad will take up all claims of ex-service men in regard to compensation, insurance and vocational training. The two medical officers on the squad have power to examine and rate all cases, and this will eliminate much time and expedite needy cases.

Owing to the long period which has elapsed since the close of the World war it is necessary that all men knowing themselves to be disabled because of service in the army, navy or marine corps during the war, put in their claim as soon as possible. Numerous claims of disabled men have been disallowed under the old system and these cases can be reopened.

LODGE NOT IN FAVOR OF OPEN CONFERENCE

No One Representing President Will Attend in Favor of Publicity Says Senator

PROPOSED BY SEN. HARRISON

Washington, Aug. 24.—"No one representing the president of the United States will go to the disarmament conference not in favor of the largest measure of the publicity compatible with getting business done," Senator Lodge has informed the senate.

Lodge already has been named one of the American delegates to the conference and is therefore in touch with the plans of the president.

Lodge spoke against a proposal by Senator Harrison, of Mississippi, which put the senate on record as favoring open session of the conference.

Harrison made his proposal as an amendment to the bill appropriating $200,000 for the expenses of the conference.

Following Lodge's statement Senator Harrison withdrew his publicity proposal in view of the opposition of administration leaders.

Senator Reed, Mo., then offered a resolution providing that the American delegates should work for publicity from day to day during the conference.

48 NATIONS WILL BE REPRESENTED

Second General Assembly of League of Nations Nearest Approach to World Congress

TO BE HELD SEPTEMBER 5

No Question of Organization to be Disposed of And Very Little New Business

By Henry Wood, (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

Geneva, Aug. 24.—The Second General Assembly of the League of Nations, which will begin a month's session here on September 5, will constitute the nearest approach to a world-wide congress that has ever taken place.

Official advices received by the Secretariat from the forty-eight states now members of the league, announce that all will have delegations present. Among the forty-eight delegations there will be representatives from at least two former enemy states, namely, Austria and Bulgaria. These were admitted to membership during the closing hours of the first assembly in December of last year.

In addition it is practically certain that Hungary's application for membership which has already been received will be accepted in time to permit of her participation in at least a portion of the assembly's work.

In the event Germany applies for membership, there is little doubt but she will also be admitted, although a fight might possibly be put up to delay her admission until towards the close of the Assembly so that she could not begin full active participation in the league until the 1922 assembly.

With the certain admission of Hungary and the very probable admission of Germany, only four great states will then remain out of the league, namely, the United States, Russia, Mexico and Turkey.

This year there will be little if any question of organization to be disposed of, as the league is already functioning fully, and there will be very little new business.

One of the new items that must be passed upon, however, and which promises a sharp conflict is the request of Bolivia to revise her treaty of 1904 with Chili, under the terms of which she is cut off from access to the sea.

The assembly will also be called upon to pass upon the report of the work done by the Council since the last assembly and which will include the settlement of the Aaland Island dispute between Finland and Sweden; the settlement of the Dantzic and Polish controversy and the progress made towards the final settlement of the Polish-Lithuanian-Vilna affair.

The assembly must also give final decision on the famous Argentine amendment which resulted in the withdrawal of the Argentine delegation last year. This amendment would entitle every state to admission in the league except those who do not wish to join.

In addition the assembly will pass upon the progress made by its various

Obituary

Laura Belle Matlock, was born in the state of Missouri, on June 15, 1853. Died at her home in Circleville, Ind., on August 12, 1921, aged 68 years, 1 month, 27 days.

She was the daughter of Samuel and Emily Owen, and came with them to this county when eight years old, and the remainder of her life was spent in this vicinity.

She was married to Bruce Matlock on Oct. 22, 1874, and for almost half a century, has been his faithful wife and companion.

Five children were born to them. One daughter, Minnie, died at the age of six years. The bereft husband, one daughter, Mrs. A. N. Newbold; three sons, Bert, Walter and Harry; six grandchildren; and two sisters, Mrs. G. B. Young; and Mrs. O. T. Fields; survive and mourn the loss of this dear one that is at rest.

When quite young she made the good confession, and became a member of the Christian church at Arlington, Ind.

For a number of years her health has not permitted her to perform many of the duties she loved; and much of the time she endured great suffering; but through it all she was always patient and cheerful. Her disposition was such that whether the days were full of clouds, or sunshine for her, she bore them all without a murmur and was content.

Her home and family were her kingdom where she reigned supreme, and her greatest pleasure in life was to minister to them.

Her work is done, the last page of her life is written, and she is at rest.

As the glory of the autumn with the ripening of the leaves, Marks the ending of the harvest and the binding of the sheaves; So there seems a fitting beauty in the glory of the day.

That marked the peaceful ending of the life that's passed away.

And the waning of the season with its fruits all bravely won, Blends with this finished life as though the two were one. 13911

RAILROADS HAVE PASSED CRISIS

Believed to Have Turned the Corner in Their Financial Condition, Cuyler Says

DEVELOPMENT AT STANDSTILL

Expert Says Carriers Would Show Net Earnings of at least Half Billions This Year

(By United Press)

New York, Aug. 24.—The railroads have "turned the corner" in their financial condition, according to Thomas Dewitt Cuyler, chairman of the Association of Railway Executives.

Cuyler, in a statement to the United Press today, said it was hoped the carriers would show net earnings of at least half a billion dollars for this year.

Farther "drastic reductions" in operating expenses are necessary, however, before the railroads can make any general reduction in rates he said.

"As the result of the war and the period of federal control, the earning power of the American railways was practically destroyed," Cuyler declared. "Net earnings declined from approximately $934,000,000 in 1917 to approximately $62,000,000 in 1920.

"Development of American railroads has been at a standstill for at least five years. Naturally, no industry can grow when it cannot surely pay interest or dividends to those who invest their money in it.

"My belief is that the railroads now have turned the corner. It is hoped that they will in the aggregate make net earnings of at least $500,000,000 for the year of 1921."

Cuyler explained that such an income would be less than a three percent return but would cover the total of their charges.

CONCRETE BRIDGES TO LAST A CENTURY

Every Bridge That is Being Built in State Will Support at Least Two Hundred Tons

ARE BUILT TWO FEET WIDER

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 24.—Concrete and steel bridges in Indiana are being built to last a century.

Every bridge that is being built will support at least two hundred tons.

Narrow one way bridges are being eliminated, from the state highway system and all bridges are being built with enough clearance to accommodate two moving streams of traffic.

This is the policy of the state highway commission as outlined to the United Press today by W. J. Titus, head of the bridge department.

"Bridges which we are now building and will continue to build will support two steady streams of moving traffic," Titus said. "All bridges are being built two feet wider than the road so as to allow drivers plenty of clearance on each side.

"We are also eliminating all dangerous grade crossings which might hamper the driver of a car or the construction of good roads," he said.

The last set of contracts which were awarded in June called for twenty concrete and eleven steel bridges. When the contracts are let for bridges on August 30 about fourteen will be steel and two concrete.

"We are building practically as many steel as concrete bridges. We are however attempting to build bridges of both steel and concrete that will last a century," Titus concluded.

AGENTS SEEK RUM RUNNER

Make Successful Dash Through Virginia Capes Yesterday

Norfolk, W. Va., Aug. 24.—Five rum runners laden with one quarter million dollars worth of whiskey were being sought by federal dry agents following a successful dash through the Virginia capes here Tuesday. Although the capes were heavily guarded and the coast guard cutters were heavily armed, in the streams, the ships slipped by the dry agents and dashed by up the Chesapeake bay.

The liquor ships carried more than 200 cases of Scotch whiskey loaded in Massau harbor from a former submarine chaser.

U. S. SHIPPING IN NEED OF CAPITAL

Public Investment in This Industry Will be Reflected in Other Lines, Says P. H. W. Ross

NEEDS MERCHANT MARINE

Federal Legislation Regulating Overseas Shipping Has Alienated American Capital

By HAROLD D. JACOBS (U. P. Staff Correspondent)

New York, Aug. 24.—American shipping, seriously crippled at present, needs large amounts of capital to put it on a firm basis.

Public investment in this industry, according to P. H. W. Ross, president of the National Marine League, not only will bring a return of prosperity to this business but will be reflected in other lines now largely dependent upon it.

"A recent statement by Chairman Lasker of the United States shipping board, proved conclusively that capital in a very large amount is required to operate a fleet of only six or seven modern ships," Ross said.

"Federal legislation regulating overseas shipping has succeeded in completely alienating American capital from that business. Those already entangled would gladly quit if they could.

"Not until Senators and Congressmen from the interior realize that their own constituents are deservingly crippled without an American merchant marine shall we ever be able to operate the ships the country now owns.

"The basic truth which congress and voters alike must remember is this: In 1914 we, being a debtor nation, the world at large called at our doors for our products which it was glad to take in settlement of our debts. Therefore at that time we could get along fairly well without much of a merchant marine.

"But in 1921 we find ourselves a world creditor. No one is going out of his way to call on us to pay his debts to the United States government or to the people. On the contrary we must go out and call on the world.

"We cannot go anywhere except to Canada and Mexico without ships. Surely with this knowledge we can draw our own conclusions and act accordingly."

Terre Haute, Ind., Aug. 24.—Francis Lemon 16 was held here today under $2,000 bond charged with intent to wreck Big Four train No. 11 on August 7 as it passed through Burnett. Lemon was bound over to circuit court by City Judge Shaffer.

FAITH KEPT WITH FARM INTERESTS

Enlargement of Powers of War Finance Corporation Means Financing of 1921 Harvest

IS EXTENDED MORE CREDIT

Corporation Has Advanced or is Negotiating Advances of $63,471,000—Approximately 93%

Washington, Aug. 24.—The enlargement of the powers of the War Finance Corporation, recently recommended by the President to the Congress in connection with the financing of agricultural products will, if adopted, mean adequate financing of the 1921 harvests for the purposes of foreign and domestic trade. Under the powers already possessed by the War Finance Corporation, it has either advanced, or is negotiating advances in the aggregate sum of $63,471,000 approximately 93 percent of which covers agricultural commodities.

The largest transactions relate to cotton and represent in the aggregate to the financing of a million bales. The corporation has already closed loans on cotton in the sum of $16,560,000 and has under negotiation, loans in the sum of $15,225,000. It is negotiating an advance of $7,500,000 on approximately 10,000,000 bushels of wheat. Assistance has also been given in the exportation of 7,000 hogsheads of tobacco, representing an expenditure of $1,180,000 and another transaction covering 18,000 hogsheads, representing an investment of $6,500,000. The corporation has also agreed to advance $8,500,000 on exports of condensed milk, $250,000 to co-operative associations on exports of canned goods and is negotiating an additional expenditure on canned goods of $550,000.

Inasmuch as a cotton planter, as a rule, buys most of his cereals and other food from the north and is, in common with all other consumers a patron of industries which manufacture household necessities, clothing and farm machinery giving employment to millions of workmen who in turn consume food, it is believed that the financing of cotton exports will immediately start millions of dollars into circulation in the various channels of American industry and immediately stimulate the market for the food products of the northern grain and cattle growers.

In addition to the above mentioned advances on agricultural commodities made by the War Finance Corporation, a banking loan fund of $50,000,000 has been organized and is in operation for the relief of the live stock industry. This fund was created largely upon the initiative of Secretary of the Treasury Mellon. It became operative about the middle of July and already over $5,000,000 has been loaned out of it.

In addition to this provision, Congress has enacted a law increasing the amount of loans available for farm loans by the Federal Farm Loan Bank. This is known as the Curtis-Nelson Bill and became a law July 1st. It immediately increased available farm loans in the sum of $20,000,000 and under the provisions of the act this sum will be still further increased. A bill to increase the rate of interest paid to investors in Farm Loan Bank bonds has passed the Senate and will pass the House in a few days. This will enable the Farm Loan bonds to compete in the market with commercial bonds and thereby increase the funds of the Farm Loan Banks.

In addition to all this, the reduction of discount rates by the Federal Reserve Banks and the extension of time on agricultural paper to six months twice that extended on commercial paper, will relieve the tension in agricultural sections and make it easier for the financing of agricultural commodities.

All told, the Republican administration, through Congress the Secretary of the Treasury and other mediums, has within the past ninety days provided approximately $10,000,000 in extra credit to the agricultural interests of the country.

TO RECEIVE NEW HIGH PRICE FOR GRAPES

Treasurer of Grape Growers' Association Predicted Michigan Grapes Would Bring $150 a Ton

LATE SLEET STORM CAUSE

Paw Paw, Mich., Aug. 24.—Despite the fact Americans are turning their back on their national drink—grape juice—Michigan farmers will receive the highest prices in history for their grapes this fall.

Leo E. Prater, treasurer of the National Grape Growers' Association, predicted today that Michigan grapes would bring an average price of $150 a ton, with a maximum of at least $200, compared with a $90 average last year and a maximum of $114. Ten years ago they brought $20 a ton.

The reason for the increased prices was a late spring sleet storm, which reduced the crop to about 25 percent of normal. Southwestern Michigan will ship not more than 1,500 carloads of grapes this year, averaging perhaps 20 tons to the car.

Grape juice factories, which ordinarily take about a third of the output, will not buy a pound of grapes this year. They have an enormous surplus on hand as a result of the public's refusal to pay the high price for grape juice at soda fountains, in comparison with other soft drinks, because of the extra ad valorem tax on the beverage. An effort will be made to induce Congress to eliminate this tax.

WORKING ON FARMS CURES SHELL-SHOCK

Winnipeg, Man., Aug. 24.—Figures from a survey gathered here indicated that country life was the surest cure for shell-shock.

The percentage of shell-shocked soldiers settled on the land, who have completely recovered, was far greater than that among those who staid in cities. The Canadian government has put 25,500 soldiers on the land and assisted them to equip their farms with stocks, buildings and farm machinery.

Though many of these soldiers were suffering from wounds and other effects of the war, the average soldier-farmer today is in ruddy health as well as sound finance.
